 A clothing closet has been opened at First Baptist Church in Belle Glade for all in need.

The free clothing is available on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The church is located at 17 N.W. Avenue B, Belle Glade.

GDS Fall Fest. is coming
 The Class of '99 at Glades Day School is sponsoring a Treasure Chest at the annual Fall Festival. Prizes that may be won from the chest include two tickets to the Jupiter Theatre for a dinner performance of "Evita", four tickets to any performance at the West Palm Beach Auditorium, SunFest passes, gift packages, shirts from MODA, gift certificates from local merchants and much more.

The festival is set for Saturday, Oct. 28, beginning with the costume parade at 5 p.m. Food booths and games begin at 6 p.m.

Awards Banquet tonight
 The Thirty-first Annual Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce Annual Awards Banquet will be held Thursday, Oct. 28, at 7 p.m. The highlight of the evening is the naming of the Citizen of the Year. Tickets are $25 and are available by calling the chamber office at 996-2745.

Police Department gives Halloween trick or treat tips for October 31

The Belle Glade Police Department is recommending that Oct. 31, be designated as the night for Halloween celebrations and children may "Trick or Treat" from 5 to 7 p.m. South Bay and Pahokee have also set this date and time.

To be on the safe side, police recommend:

- Costumes
 - Keep costumes simple. Long and fancy ones could cause children to trip. Costumes should also be fireproof.
 - Costumes should be made of white or light-colored material to be easily seen at night. Reflective patches or strips should also be added to the costume.
 - "Regular street shoes should be worn as opposed to fancy 'clown' or 'pirate' shoes, etc."
 - Props, such as guns or swords, should be made of styrofoam or cardboard.
 - If Jack-O-Lanterns are carried a flashlight should be inside instead of a candle.
 - At least one person in each group should carry a flashlight.
- Masks
 - Instead of wearing masks, paint faces with make-up.
 - Apply a thin coat of cold

- cream before applying the make-up (make-up will come off easier).
- Treats
 - NEVER eat anything until after you are home and the treats have been examined.
 - Cut and wash fruit before eating.
 - Throw away anything unwrapped.
 - Check the wrappers of commercial treats for signs of tampering.
 - Notify the police if harmful items are found.
 - Parties
 - Older children should attend parties instead of going trick-or-treating.
 - Younger children may enjoy attending a party organized by concerned parents in the area instead of going trick-or-treating.
 - Trick-or-treat
 - A responsible adult, or teen, should accompany each group.
 - Try to limit the group size to four or five.
 - Trick-or-treating should be for small children only. If the child is too old to be accompanied, he is too old to go trick-or-treating.
 - Walk! Do not run while going trick-or-treating.

- Stay in your own neighborhood and only go to houses which have porch lights turned on.
- Parents should know exactly what route their children are taking.
- Never enter a strangers house, even if invited.
- Carry trick-or-treating bags that have handles to keep your hands free.
- Parents
 - To avoid encouraging children to enter a strangers house, never invite trick-or-treaters into your home.
 - Give wrapped homemade treats only to children you know and wrapped commercial treats to others.
 - Be certain that your children are accompanied by an adult or a responsible teenager.
 - Know which friends your children will be with.
 - Do not leave your home unattended on Halloween night.
 - Leave your porch light on so children will know it is okay to visit your home.
 - Keep your pets inside (house, garage or shed) on Halloween night.
 - Have a safe and happy Halloween.

New Beginnings offers help for substance abusers

Vicki (last name withheld) smoked her first cigarette when she was eight years old. She got high on pot with some friends before the tender age of 12, and by the time she was a teenager, she was smoking crack cocaine.

Today, Vicki is in her mid-20's and she says she regrets the years wasted on drugs. She's trying to stay clean and is getting help through programs sponsored by the Western Palm Beach County Mental Health Clinic called PANDA (Pregnant And Addicted) and New Beginnings.

The New Beginnings program opened in July, but just celebrated their opening with a ribbon cutting ceremony this past week. They are located at 309 S.E. First Street, Belle Glade.

"What I hate is I spent 10 years of my life chasing this little substance called crack cocaine. I lost everything - my family, my possessions, my kids, everything," Vicki and several other women told their stories on tape. The tape is shown to new clients at the center in hopes they will provide inspiration to others.

Blond haired, blue eyed Vicki holds her squirming young daughter as she tells her story. She relates how she has other children, but they have all been taken away from her. She has been in trouble with the law many times.

"I worried about this little girl here because I smoked crack cocaine every day while I was carrying her. But she's all right, just a little hyper, but so am I," Vicki now holds down a full-time job as an assistant manager at a fast food restaurant. She has been drug free for almost two years.

"If you have told me two years ago I'd be clean and sober, I'd say you were crazy. I thought I'd be smoking crack cocaine," she said. "I don't ever want to spend my life like that again. This program saved my life. I'm very grateful."

New Beginnings has a day treatment program for women over 18 on Monday through Friday from 1 to 5 p.m. and an evening program on Monday and Thursday evenings from 6 to 9 p.m. for men and women.

During the day program, child care is provided on the premises for the mothers as they participate in group therapy, lectures and recreational and educational activities. Lunch is provided.

Jill Liebling, outpatient services coordinator, said the new program doesn't have a waiting list, but many of their clients are referred to them by Health and Rehabilitative Services, the court system and probation officers. "Some people walk in off the street, also," she said.

New Beginnings is a private, non-profit organization funded by HRS donations. Modest pay for some of the client fees, which are charged on a sliding scale according to ability to pay.

"We help them find a support system in the community, go to court with them, and we have a co-dependency program to work with the clients and their family," she said.

Helping her at the facility are Sheila Warren, day care specialist, Deloris Brown, transportation coordinator, Bill Brennan, substance abuse therapist, and Fanny Melendez, a substance abuse case manager.

Florida's sugar farmers fight back

Florida's sugar farmers are fighting back against the media campaign being waged against them by what they call "millionaire environmental extremists."

"The current drive to destroy our sugar farmers by imposing additional taxes on Florida sugar is being bankrolled by a group of corporate food giants, wealthy developers, and a Wall Street commodity trader," says Judy Sanchez, media relations director of U.S. Sugar Corporation.

Although the sugar industry has been countering opponents with advertisements, and editorial visits, sugar industry officials say it is time to intensify those efforts in order to confront the million dollar campaign against sugar growers. Local sugar farmers are bringing out the heavy artillery and unleashing what they say is their strongest weapon, the truth.

In a series of advertisement that began this week, Florida's sugar farmers began rebutting the information presented by the Committee To Ensure Florida's Economic and Environmental Future. Mrs. Sanchez said that by advocating a two-cent per pound tax on Florida sugar, the group seeks to drive Florida farmers off their land and out of business.

"The truth is that Florida sugar farmers are paying their share for Everglades restoration, more than $300 million. Asking farmers to pay more will only drive the industry out of business and cost Florida 40,000 jobs," said Mrs. Sanchez.

Area residents can help get this message out, she says, by calling, writing, or faxing letters to Florida members of congress. "We also need to write letters to newspaper editors across the state, spreading the sugar farmer's message. We need everyone's help to counter the misguided efforts of the environmentalists before it's too late," she stressed.

We also need to stop the giant food companies like Hershey's from bankrolling our opponents. Call them and let them know how you feel about their efforts to drive Florida sugar farmers out of business," said Mrs. Sanchez.

The telephone numbers for Hershey Foods is 1-800-468-1714. Their fax number is 717-534-4055.

To write or call Florida senators or congressmen, the names and numbers are: Senators, United States Senate, Washington DC 20510; The Honorable Bob Graham, 202/224-3041 Fax 202/224-2237; The Honorable Connie Mack, 202/224-5274 Fax 202/224-8002; Representatives: U.S. House of Representatives, Washington DC 20515; The Honorable Michael Bilirakis, 202/225-5755 Fax 202/225-4085; The Honorable Corrine Brown, 202/225-0123 Fax 202/225-2256; The Honorable Charles T. The final check...State Representative Addie Greene presents a check to Pahokee City Manager Ken Schenck for $4,425, the fourth and final payment for the Prince Theatre repairs. Mr. Schenck said the money comes from the Florida Department of State, Division of Historical Resources and will be used to finish renovations on the theatre, which will hopefully open sometime before Christmas.

Grassy Waters Festival is next weekend

Entertainment will abound at the Seventh Annual Grassy Waters Festival to be held on Nov. 4 in Pahokee.

A variety of music will be presented by "Dixie Highway", a Christian group of performers who sing everything from gospel to country to 50's and 60's rock 'n' roll and Robin Plitt, a guitarist from Lake Worth who sings songs about Florida and folk music, too, will add to the festivities.

"The River Ramblers and Country Rhythms", a group of cloggers from the Clewiston-LaBelle area, will perform as well as local line dancers, the "Big Lake Dancers."

Encamped on the shores of the lake and periodically giving a live re-enactment of Civil War "happenings" will be several members of Living History. Also adding to the events of the day will be the "XYZ Quilters" demonstrating their skills as well as basket-weaving demos.

The Flywheelers will demonstrate their gasoline engines and the Midstate Ultra-lites will display their planes, as well as the classic car show that continues throughout the day.

Games such as sack races, 3-legged races, ring toss and darts keep the kids' interest while parents sit back and enjoy the entertainment. In addition, several "hay digs" will be held and a petting zoo is offered...and it's all free!

Festival goers will want to be sure to take in the annual Art Show that will feature local artists and will be housed at the fire department at the bottom of the dike. This display of local talent is becoming an integral part of the festival and promises to be better than ever this year. There is no charge for admission.

Also, don't forget to bring those cans of food for admission to help in WPTV News Channel 5's Food For Families campaign.

A cruise will be offered on the evening of Nov. 4, and will include hors d'oeuvres and a cruise on the lake.

The first contest of the day will be the ever-popular bed race. The next big contest is the second annual boat race, which is quickly gaining interest and popularity, said Mrs. Mohney. The boats are all made from corrugate, donated by U.S. Sugar Corporation, and the material is available from the chamber office. First prize is $100 in this race. Racing begins at 3 p.m.

The third contest is a little less physical than the other two, says Mrs. Mohney, but no less challenging. The annual bake off allows local cooks to show off their talents. Young cooks are urged to participate too and yes, they do have men chefs entering. Registration is anytime before noon on the day of the festival. Judging begins at noon sharp.

Healthfirst Sweet Sensations???

By Paula Swaford, RN

Imagine the following: For several days you've felt absolutely horrible. You've been eating the same, but steadily losing weight. You constantly feel weak and have to urinate more frequently than usual. No matter how much you drink, your thirst is never relieved and you feel so tired. Your eyes play tricks on you and your vision is blurry at times. Your breath has a fruity, sweet odor to it. You decide to visit a doctor and after he runs several tests on you, he determines that you have developed a disease called diabetes.

No one would be thrilled to hear that diagnosis, but it is yours and how would you handle it? What lifestyle changes would you and your family have to make? Could you adjust to a drastic diet change for the rest of your life? Ignoring diabetes will NOT make it go away!

This is a serious, chronic, sometimes debilitating disease that requires a dedicated commitment on your part. It involves taking medication (either by injection or by mouth), a specified, calorie-regulated diet, and an exercise regimen adherence for the rest of your life.

Newly diagnosed diabetics are literally bombarded with information by their health-care providers in an attempt to educate them about the seriousness of their illness. However, sometimes all the information can be so overwhelming that the new diabetics feel that they will never be able to know all they will need to know about their disease.

One way to overcome this is to focus on one area of knowledge at a time, until they are comfortable with their level of understanding. Medical jargon can be confusing for the "lay" person and literally sound like a foreign language. Group therapy and local support systems are also very helpful in aiding people to understand and cope with their new illness.

If the diabetic is not totally committed to managing his or her illness, then complications are bound to occur.

These can include a deterioration of the retina in the eyes, kidney disease leading to kidney failure, high blood pressure, stroke, heart disease and peripheral vascular disease (a lack of proper circulation to the feet and legs) which can lead to gangrene and possible amputation of a limb.

National Diabetes Awareness Week is observed this year on Oct. 30 to Nov. 5. Anyone with diabetes should be aware that with proper education and a willingness to manage their condition properly using all the sources available, they can lead long, productive lives. Remember...medication, diet and exercise work together like a jigsaw puzzle...without all the pieces, you can't have the complete picture of a healthy body.

Until next time...stay informed and stay healthy.

Bridges Fall Conference is Nov. 18

The Second Annual Bridges' Fall Conference will be held Saturday, Nov. 18, from 8:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the new Glades Central Community High School.

All teenage girls, ages 13-18 and who are interested in learning about career opportunities that could shape the future, are urged to attend the free conference. Lunch, door prizes, and goodie bags will be available.

Bridges is an all-volunteer, non-profit organization of local professional women dedicated to helping today's teen women realize their full potential. Persons wanting more information, should call Barbara Swaby or Matilda Edwards at 996-3889, or Melvye Lockett at 992-3500.

Is global warming to blame for this crazy weather?

By Mike Lyons

Was Andrew a freak storm or a preview of things to come? It was a question I heard often in the fall of 1992. Everyone wanted to know if another storm like Andrew was possible.

The answer I gave was "no" because Andrew was a "hundred-year storm" - a hurricane so ferocious it could only develop once a century.

Guess what? Mother nature has been shooting holes in that theory.

Last year, two "hundred-year storms" developed in the Pacific with one threatening Hawaii. This year, the tropics have gone bonkers - 17 storms and 10 hurricanes. Half of this year's hurricanes were classified as major storms with two, Luis and Opal, reaching category four strength.

Adam Markham thinks he knows why these relatively rare storms have become so common. He says the reason is the greenhouse effect.

Climate scientists have been saying for years that our world is getting warmer. This global warming is created when carbon dioxide and methane are trapped in the atmosphere - the greenhouse effect.

"Some scientists believe that this year's increase in intense hurricanes may be among the first signs that climate change is altering weather patterns," said Mr. Markham. "This (the 1995 hurricane season) is a taste of what would come."

One predicted consequence of global warming is an increase in severe storms. A category three hurricane, for example, could blow up into a category five. But, is global warming responsible for this year's supercharged hurricane season?

"I don't believe this hurricane season is a result of anything to do with global warming," said William Gray, professor of atmospheric science at Colorado State University. Gray says the increase in hurricanes is due to a natural cycle following a 25 year lull in major storms.

Professor Gray says there are two reasons for the busy tropics: heavy rains have returned to the hurricane breeding grounds of West Africa and the warming of the Pacific water, called El Nino, has disappeared. During periods of El Nino, tropical activity decreases. Global warming is not responsible, says Professor Gray.

Yet, new studies of weather trends in the United States, China, Australia and the former Soviet Union have turned up more evidence that the world is getting warmer. One study concluded that the greenhouse effect has increased the incidence of heavy rainstorms in the United States.

"This is the kind of change in hurricane frequency that scientists expect would occur as a result of climatic change," said Mr. Markham. To prove his point, Mr. Markham says look at the number of hurricanes - that ravaged the Caribbean this year.

"A big storm would be expected to hit the same place perhaps once a century," said Mr. Markham. "There were minuscule odds of a tiny island like St. John receiving two direct hits by storms that powerful."

St. John was struck by Hurricane Luis in early September and then again by Marilyn a few weeks later.

And, there's more bad news: If global warming is responsible for this wild season, Mr. Markham thinks next year could be worse. "I wouldn't want to be buying property on a coastal area in a storm zone," he said.

The greenhouse effect or a natural cycle - whatever the reason for this year's increase in storms, Adam Markham and Bill Gray do agree on one thing. Hurricanes, especially big hurricanes, won't be going away anytime soon.

Mike Lyons is the weatherman for WPBF, Channel 25.

"DARN, IT'S A MEDICAL!"

Smart home and business owners outsmart thieves' efforts by choosing the locks that are hard to drill, pull, cut, pick and copy the keys to.

Red Cross Fashion Show and Luncheon is set for Nov. 4

The Fourth Annual Red Cross Saks Fifth Avenue/Palm Beach Fashion Show and Luncheon will be held Saturday Nov. 4, at the Belle Glade Elks Lodge. The event will begin at 10:30 a.m. with a silent auction and social hour, to be followed by a gourmet lunch at noon and the fashion show begins at 1 p.m.

The fashion show will feature apparel and accessories exclusively from Saks Fifth Avenue, Palm Beach.

This year's fashion show theme is "A Walk in the Clouds." The silent auction will feature several drawings and special gifts, donated by many local and out-of-the-area merchants.

"We have had a lot of support from our local merchants as well as merchants out of this area," says Scottie Wright, director of the West County Service Center.

Bids can be placed on such items as a tandem sky dive from Air Adventures, in Clewiston; tickets to Disney World, Bush Gardens, Drexler Park Zoo, Gatorland, Cypress Gardens; lunch at any of the various restaurants like John G's, Margarita y Amigas, or Dino's; or a fragrance gift set from Estees' Lauder.

The silent auction committee members, Mary Orsenigo and Liaka Hooker, say they are excited about the items in this year's auction.

The chairman for this event is Red Cross volunteer Jeannette Dexter. Mrs. Dexter has been a Belle Glade resident for 30 years. Last year was a sellout crowd and this year, Mrs. Dexter said she has again worked closely with Norina Coursey, manager of Saks Fifth Avenue Palm Beach to produce the show.

"Saks Fifth Avenue always puts on a tremendous show. It feels like we are on the runways in New York," said Mrs. Dexter. "In a year of so many disasters, we are grateful for the support of Saks Fifth Avenue, the community and all our volunteers."

Tickets are $35. For more information, or tickets, call the Glades Branch of the American Red Cross at 992-9703, or Nataleah Nachman at 996-5303.

Evangelist to speak at First Baptist Church in Belle Glade during the week of Nov. 5 through Nov. 8.

Mr. Hale is known as one of Southern Baptist's most effective communicators. He speaks in many high school assemblies with the message "Be A Winner."

He will bring his message each night at 7 p.m. and the event is open to the public. Special nightly emphasis are as follows: Sunday, Nov. 5, is Youth night; Monday, Nov. 6, is Family night; Tuesday, Nov. 7 is Men's night; and Wednesday, Nov. 8 is Ladies' night.

The community is invited to participate in the services.

Evangelist Steve Hale will conduct services at the First Baptist Church in Belle Glade

The Red Cross Fashion Show and Luncheon is coming up...These ladies have been working very hard in preparation for the annual event, which will be held again this year at the Belle Glade Elks Lodge on Nov. 4. Shown seated is Jeannette Dexter, standing, left to right are Norina Coursey with Saks Fifth Avenue Palm Beach and Dolly Hand.

"I would like to know what South Bay Mayor Clarence Anthony was doing in WJNO Radio Station when the O.J. Simpson verdict was being announced? Why wasn't he in WRBD Radio Station or WPOM?"

And why did he jump up and leave when the verdict was read?

Also, I would like to know why he did not go to the Million Man March in Washington?"

Mayor Clarence Anthony responds: "I was not able to attend the 'Million Man March' in Washington, D.C. on Oct. 16, but I fully support the goals and objectives of the organizers. As I watched Minister Farrakhan's speech, I truly felt that this was one occasion that I should not have missed, not for political reasons, but for personal rejuvenation. The challenges that Minister Farrakhan outlined to African American men such as registering to vote, getting involved in local community-based organizations, and taking charge of our community through leadership, are goals and objectives I support and encourage. However, we must not attempt to 'sweep under the rug' racism and race relations in our country. Many of the speakers encouraged Americans to see the day of atonement as a reaffirmation of the power that African American men have, but have not been able or allowed to utilize in the American system. The Glades community and communities throughout our country need to look at the Million Man March as a gathering of African men reflecting on where we came from, where we are, and what we need to do to take control of our own destiny while improving our community. The real issue is not who attended, but what benefit will our community derive from the Million Man March. I believe in my heart that we will see benefit, such as increased voter registration and voter turnout, more African American men volunteering to get involved in community-based organizations, more black businesses being developed. So, I am excited and look forward to the changes that will occur in South Bay and the entire area.

Editor's note: Mayor Anthony also said in response to this caller's other question that he went where he was invited. WJNO invited him to their radio station; stations WRBD and WPOM did not.

What's the deal?

"I've notice in Pahokee that for the last several months the recycle material, newspapers and that sort of thing, have been picked up by the regular garbage people and just dumped in with the general garbage.

I can't understand why the Solid Waste Authority would waste all that money and time trying to train us to separate it and they're not picking it up separately anymore. What's going on?"

Editor's Note: I spoke with Pahokee's City Manager Ken Schenck who said he is not aware of any place that this is happening, and it should not be happening, but he will certainly bring this up with the trash company. He asks that this caller please call him at 924-5534, and give him his address so he can check into this more thoroughly. Thank you for Speaking Out.

Letters to the editor

Dear Editor:

Belle Glade was once called "The Winter Vegetable Capital of the World." Today, a sign reads "Her Soil Is Her Fortune." Tomorrow a sign might read "Once was the Vegetable Capital of the World and Her Soil Was Her Fortune" - but unfortunately, the farmers and the migrants moved to Mexico to find work.

What has happened to the vegetable farmer? Belle Glade was known for farming carrots, parsley, lettuce and a variety of other vegetables. Today, all I see is sugar cane and not enough jobs for unskilled laborers.

Belle Glade was a town that gave hope to migrants all across this country. Migrants are now skeptical of making a journey to Belle Glade in fear that Belle Glade has no jobs or future to offer.

Our city elected officials need to look into this problem. Let's face the facts - a Mexican Village in Pahokee is not going to produce jobs.

Thank you.

Guest Commentary

By Cong. Alcee Hastings

As the Republicans in Congress move toward their goal of reducing the federal deficit at any cost, they are about to approve deep, unprecedented cuts in the financing and delivery of health care to our nation's elderly and poor. These cuts will be far deeper, and have far greater consequences than the proposed cuts in almost any other part of the budget, totalling $450 billion over seven years while financing a tax break for the wealthy.

Since 1965, the federal government has provided a minimum standard of health care for all citizens through the Medicare and Medicaid programs. Republicans in both the House and Senate want to end this national commitment by terminating the individual federal entitlement to Medicaid coverage.

Today, 36 million Americans, including 18 million children depend on Medicaid as their only source of health care coverage. Without this assurance for tomorrow, children will not be guaranteed access to basic medical care, including screening for preventable medical problems that give them a chance to live a healthy life.

In addition, many pregnant women will not be able to receive adequate prenatal care, exacerbating the health problems that accompany premature births. Persons with disabilities will be adversely affected because they will not be able to afford the medical care and related assistance necessary to live independently. Additionally, senior citizens who depend on Medicaid will live in inadequately staffed nursing homes or in other regressive long-term care settings where their needs will not be fully met.

These draconian cuts will overwhelm Florida. The formula used to develop the Republican plan is soaked in demographic denial...it ignores Florida's status as a growth state. Under the Republican proposal, the annual Medicaid growth rate would be capped at a percentage far below what the state would need to take care of its under served and unserved population. The consequences of block granting Medicaid are bleak, with the combined effects being forced hospital closings and uninsured Floridians.

Even worse, the determining formula is based on outdated figures which penalize growth states. Thus, in Florida, the total number of individuals on Medicaid will grow by 10 percent to 12 percent a year. However, the Republican proposal will only allow Medicaid to grow at a rate of 6 percent...about half the current 10 percent growth rate.

Gov. Chiles understands that cuts of this magnitude would harm Florida and agrees that block granting Medicaid under this formula is a terrible idea.

Republican cuts in Medicare are equally disheartening. The expediency with which the majority in Congress has executed their legislation is shameful. The GOP's newly-released plan will cut benefits while increasing premiums. Strict spending limits will be imposed on Medicare, and once implemented, seniors' health care coverage will be predetermined by Republican budget goals, without regard to the cost of delivering health care to our seniors.

I strongly support efforts to improve efficiency, provide greater program flexibility and cost containment in Medicare and Medicaid proposals. However, a reasoned path toward these reforms is necessary and the Republican proposal to cut Medicare and Medicaid in order to cut taxes for affluent Americans is seriously flawed.

So-called "reform" of this magnitude merits caution, careful debate and deliberation. Let's not mis-diagnose the financing and delivery of health care services to our nation's elderly, disabled and poor.

The current proposal to block grant Medicaid and cap medicare reimbursement will devastate millions of vulnerable Americans who look to the federal government to honor its long time commitment to public safety, security and well-being.

Subway founder makes visit to Pahokee

The new Subway restaurant in Pahokee has been open for a couple of months, but just recently, the owners were paid a special visit.

Fred Deluca, founder and president of Subway, stopped in to visit the new Subway owned by Thomas and Derrick Burrus.

The Burrus men are long-time residents of Pahokee. Mr. Deluca does not get to see that many stores since the company he started now has over 11,000 locations, but Derrick Burrus said Mr. Deluca made a special visit because this Subway restaurant is so big.

Mr. Deluca said he was glad to see things were going so well for the new owners and took time to have his picture taken with the crew.

{ FLORIDA'S SUGAR FARMERS WANT YOU TO KNOW THE TRUTH }

Extremists Never Get it Right.

Barons? Hardly. There are 40,000 sugar-related jobs in Florida—40,000 people earning their living and supporting their families. Only an extremist would try to make living off the land into something wrong.

It's the big soft drink, cereal and candy makers who have contributed well over $12 million to politicians. Because they want Washington to let them price-gouge consumers. $12 million from sugar farmers? Let's get real.

Sound good? It's a front group for a real estate developer, a Wall Street commodity trader and other special interests that would put sugar farmers out of work.

Sugar farmers don't get paid a dime—America's sugar policy exists to prevent subsidized European dumped sugar from putting America's farmers out of work.

Wrong. Sugar farmers are paying over $300 million to help restore the Everglades.

The extremists always have the answer for any problem: more taxes. The fact is, sugar farmers are paying over $300 million to help restore the Everglades.

Nobody knows this better than sugar farmers. That's why they're always finding new and better ways to grow crops, conserve water and care for the environment.

A real estate developer, a Wall Street commodity trader and several other special interests are attacking Florida's sugar farmers. If they got their way, they'd drive sugar farmers off the land and out of Florida. It's an extreme, radical position—and they'll say and do anything to get what they want.

But extremists never get it right—they're too busy tearing down.

The fact is sugar farming creates 40,000 jobs throughout Florida.

Sugar farmers pay their full share of taxes—federal, state and local. They're proud of helping feed America.

And in recent years, sugar farmers have worked closely with environmentalists like Interior Secretary Bruce Babbitt and Gov. Lawton Chiles to control runoff and rejuvenate the Everglades.

But the extremists don't care about these facts—they want to blame almost every environmental problem in the state of Florida on sugar farmers.

The extremists want to raise taxes. They want more government rules and regulations. They want to confiscate private property. And in the end, they'll drive sugar farmers and farm jobs from Florida—leaving foreign suppliers to feed America.

The extremists are wrong. Caring for the environment is a difficult and complex task, and sugar farmers are doing their part.

The extremists can yell, point fingers and play games. Florida's sugar farmers are getting the job done.

Florida's Sugar Farmers: Jobs Worth Keeping.

Gator Tales

Fall is in the air! Did you feel that little "nip" early in the week? The air is just a few degrees cooler and just in time for the Fall Festival that will be held at Glades Day School's Main Campus this Saturday, Oct. 28.

Festivities will begin with the elementary costume parade on the football field at 5 p.m., at which time the food booths will open. The fun and games start at 6 p.m. with all kinds of activities planned for the old and young. The auction begins at 6:30 p.m. and that's when the drawing for the 1995 Ford Pick-up truck gets rolling. Who will be the lucky winner this year?

GDS congratulates the varsity football team, who clinched the district tie with a 9-7 victory over Ft. Lauderdale Westminster last Saturday! Although the Gators have one district game left (against Moore Haven), they won the championship by defeating the Lions and American Heritage who, with one loss each, still have to play each other, probably for the runner-up position. Way to go guys!

No sooner will everyone catch their breath from the carnival than it's time for Homecoming next week. This year's homecoming theme is "Gators get Ruff". The Student Council has already picked out Spirit Days for the student body to follow. Monday will be "Twins" Day (or even triplets!), Tuesday will be "Nerd or Preppy" Day, Wednesday we'll see the "70s" look, Thursday will be "Hawaiian" Day, and Friday will be "GDS Colors" Day. Students are advised that shorts will be okay for Thursday and Friday, but they must be of appropriate length (recommend measurement is 6" above the back of the knee).

Gator Growl, a special night time pep rally, is planned for Thursday evening, Nov. 2, after the JV football game against St. Edward's. The homecoming parade will begin at 1 p.m. Friday. The procession will take off from the GDS campus, turn left and head south on Main Street to the City hall complex.

The homecoming queen will be crowned during halftime ceremonies of the varsity football game against district rival Moore Haven. This year's candidates are Emily Cavinee, Jennifer Griffin, Bridget Hurley, Marnae Kohr, Ginnie Martin, Jai Salvatore and Tara York.

The Homecoming Dance for grades 9-12 will be held from 8 p.m. until midnight on Saturday, Nov. 4. Tickets may be purchased in advance from Mrs. Scruggs for $3 for single; $5 per couple. The cost at the door is $4 per person.

Students are reminded that if they plan to bring a date who does not attend GDS, they must sign up the date and show proof of age to the office by Friday, Nov. 3. Your date must be in at least the ninth grade of school and/or no older than 20 years of age.

Red Ribbon Week Oct. 23-31

Once again, the Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce is seeing red! Ribbons, that is! Red Ribbon week, part of the 1995 Florida Red Ribbon campaign to promote "Say No to Drugs" is Oct. 23 - 31, and each year the Chamber provides ribbons for the students, businesses, and citizens of the Glades.

Thousands and thousands of ribbons are tied with the help of the Honor Society at Glades Day School, and Red Ribbons sponsors Xi Lota Alpha and Xi Zeta Mu, and then distributed by the Belle Glade Police Department. If you or your organization would like to help in the future, please call the Chamber at 996-2745.

Rosenwald School News

Rosenwald will observe its annual Coronation Ceremony for the presentation of the 1995-96 Royal Court, queens and escorts from Pre-K through 12th grade as well as Miss 5th Grade, Miss May Day and Miss Rosenwald will be honored.

The Royal Court, the schools drill team and Scout Troops will take part in the Glades Central and Pahokee High school's homecoming parades.

The program will begin at 10:15 a.m. Come one, come all! The L.E.A.P. (Learning thru Educational and Art projects) has entered into the second phase of the pilot, begun last year. This year's focus will be via the short form of the dance. Beth Pozo will present an eight week program incorporating Jazz and Aerobatics. The curriculum objectives will center on following directions and respecting personal space.

The Raider log

Raiders! Thanks to everyone who supported the girls basketball team by buying a pre-game dinner. We appreciate your help. This week is Homecoming and the week is planned as follows:

Monday - Kiddie Day, dress like a young man when you were just a little kid.

Tuesday - Twin Day, find a friend and dress alike.

Wednesday - Old Fashion Day, dress up like they did back in the old days.

Thursday - Spirit Day and pep rally, wear all the maroon and gold that you can, to show your school spirit.

Friday - No school, but remember the Homecoming Parade at 3 p.m. from the old school and the Glades Central Raider vs. St. Lucie game at 7:30 pm at Memorial Field.

This past Saturday, Oct. 21, the Glades Central Drama Club and International Theatrical Society held a car wash at McDonald's to help raise money for their trip to District 1. They will perform the play, "English Made Simple", which they are now working on. Thanks to all those who came out and showed their support.

Congratulations to all the participants who won at Coronation.

Congratulations to the Mighty Raiders for pulling off an excellent win Friday night over the Clewiston Tigers. Way to go Lawson, and Acquinetta Steel.

Now what's a good football game if there aren't any cheerleaders? So we came up with a "new replacement team". Lamart Cooper, Michael Hall, Terrance Davis, Roy Smith, Kovey Jones, Tarris Osborne, and Jeremy Banks all bravely volunteered to dress in drag for a day to cheer our senior girls on. The coaches who will be training the girls will be Lefann Williams and Fred Smith. And last but definitely not least we have our senior sponsors: Ms. Bowers, Korbly, D'Andre, and Zwick. Good luck to both teams, let's see if the seniors can hold their title as "undefeated champions".

And finally we come to Thursday, the most jam packed day of the week. The fun begins with the school effigy hanging in the morning. Here Pahokee gets psyched for the big night to come. After an early dismissal at 12 noon, students will be busy preparing for the parade. Floats, costumes, and routines will be getting last minute touches as they're prepared for showtime. The parade will begin promptly at 3 p.m. Afterwards students will be preparing for the big game. And if all these events weren't enough, there is a Homecoming dance to be held at the gym following the game!

Next week's article will include a full description of the coronation, plus an individual interview with each of the winners. We'll find out their feelings, future plans, and any advice they may have for Pahokee students.

Blake Lorenz is coming to the Glades

The Canal Point United Methodist Church invites everyone to come, and hear the good news that Blake Lorenz brings to the people of the Glades. Blake Lorenz who was known as the winning pitcher of College Division II, during his time in college, then played for the Chicago Cubs. He is an incredible communicator of the love of God. He is now on God's team, pitching the gospel for Jesus.

Rod Ruby of Lake Harbor will be leading the singing for these services. Plan to be with the good folks at the Canal Point United Methodist Church Sunday through Wednesday, Oct. 29 through Nov. 1, nightly at 7 p.m. Come and receive a blessing, you will be glad you came! The church nursery will be open. For additional information or transportation, please call 924-7325.

Blake Lorenz

HIPPY Parent night

HIPPY parent night was held on Thursday, Oct. 19, at Rosenwald Elementary's school cafeteria. The rainy weather did not hinder parents from coming out to HIPPY parent night.

"Parents Can Build Self-Esteem in Children" was the topic of the speaker for the evening, Ms. Miranda Smith.

Mrs. Moore, Coordinator, introduced a volunteer component into this year's program. At the present time, there are seven volunteers who will be assisting with all phases of the program such as: greeting parents at meetings, taking photographs, assisting with child care at meetings, making decorations for meetings, and some will be acting as adoptive grandparents, going into the homes lending assurance to HIPPY families. Some of the volunteers have also requested to go into the homes to speak with those parents who have not come to HIPPY meetings. Parents and children enjoyed the evening by working together on a fun enrichment activity.

Birthday children were honored with a cake, given a crown, gift, and certificate.

The "Parent Participation Points" system will be starting this month.

The next HIPPY meeting will be Thursday, Nov. 16, at 7 p.m. at Rosenwald Elementary.

Homecoming week (Oct. 23-26) is finally here! This year's activities are packed with surprises, not to mention a catchy homecoming theme - "Devil's tane those Bobcats". The coronation, effigy hanging, homecoming dance, and finally the long awaited

Blue Devil's Corner

Pahokee versus Boca Homecoming football game.

We begin our Homecoming week activities with "Kiddie Day" on Monday. On this day everyone gets the chance to unleash their inner child. Both faculty and students are invited to show off their school spirit by dressing up like little boys and girls. Aside from the usual dress up routine, this year competitions for the best dressed-up student will be held each day. Students are nominated by teachers and the winners will receive a surprise at the end of the day. The rest of the homecoming week dress up days include:

College T-shirt/Jersey day on Tuesday, Hobo Day on Wednesday, and School Spirit Day on Thursday.

Aside from these activities during the day, Homecoming week is also packed with nighttime festivities. On Monday our 1996 Coronation will be held in the school auditorium at 7 p.m. Here the new queens for Pahokee Middle-Senior High will be announced. Congratulations to all of the winners!

On Tuesday Pahokee students will get a real treat. The annual Powder Puff football game between the senior and junior girls will be held during sixth period. This year's participants include: Tina Anderson, Brandi Ingram, Angela Austin, Roni Hargrave, Tamirra Harris, La'Surprise Jackson, Taquicha Jackson, Jerkita McElendon, Lawatis McElven, Tamara Starks, and Tarchur Tomlin. Recognition also goes out to the junior sponsors - Mrs. Bass, Boyd, Mr. Butts, and Mrs. Matter.

And in the other corner we have last year's undefeated senior girls! This year's senior participants include: Yarnell Williams, Sireaner Owens, Tekeyshia Moreland, Amitha Davis, Natalie Kelly, Richesha Salesman, Jacaranda Banks, Jackieisha Diamond, Cynthia Salazar, Rosebela Hickman, Tanameka Brown, Michelle Charles, Newanya Belgrave, Rashanette Brown, Christina Powell, Tamera

Williams wins $750 scholarship

Roger Williams, son of Roger and Ethel Williams of Belle Glade, was the winner of the 1995 Florida Education Fund (FEF) Tenth Annual Black History and Culture Brain Bowl Competition. He received a $750 scholarship last week from officials of FEF and Barnett Bank of Tallahassee.

Roger, a freshman at Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University (FAMU), received the scholarship funded by Barnett and created through the FEF. He earned the scholarship as a member of one of the winning teams in the Black History and Culture Brain Bowl held in Tampa earlier this year.

Barnett provided a $25,000 grant to sponsor the competition in 1995.

Roger is pursuing a mathematics and special education double major at FAMU. A graduate of Glades Central Community High School, he was Senior Class Treasurer and a member of the Year Book Club, Drama/Theatrical Club, National Honor Society, Men of Tomorrow, and president of the Future Educators of America. He was recognized for 400 hours of community service.

He participated with students on 35 academic teams that began competition at county and regional levels, with 10 teams advancing to the final competition. Winners receive their scholarships upon enrollment at an accredited institution of higher education. Seven winning students from the 1995 competition will go on to pursue college educations this year.

Established in 1984 and based in Tampa, the FEF's mission is to provide educational opportunities for African Americans and other historically disadvantaged

Palms West Hospital announces Pedicare Emergency Services

Palms West Hospital, a progressive 117-bed community hospital located on Southern Boulevard in Loxahatchee, is pleased to announce the opening of PediCare, a 24-hour pediatric emergency service. PediCare is designed to provide specialized treatment administered by an emergency department pediatric physician while at the same time minimizing anxiety and fear for the child and the parents.

PediCare solves the frustrating problem parents often encounter when a youngster experiences serious illness late at night or on weekends when the pediatrician's office is closed by providing qualified quality-oriented medical care in a safe and comfortable environment twenty-four hours a day. Among the immediate plans for making PediCare into a totally child-friendly environment are building a sandcastle entrance and decorating the treatment rooms with an underwater theme.

Child Keepers, a Lake Worth-based volunteer child advocacy organization, using the results of pain distraction research, is working with Palms West Hospital officials to prepare and decorate the PediCare treatment rooms, entrance and waiting area.

"We serve a large number of households with children," noted Chief Operating Officer, Sharon Hayes. "And serious illness often occurs in the evening, when the physician's office is closed. PediCare complements our traditional Emergency Department by meeting the special needs of young children and their parents."

With so many young families with children moving into the Palms West Hospital service area, pediatric services throughout the hospital have been also expanded. Specially trained personnel, state-of-the-art equipment and the most advanced technology enable Palms West Hospital to provide care for children until the family pediatrician is available or, if necessary, during an extended hospital stay.

"As the father of two children, I know how frightening it can be for both the child and the parent when sudden illness strikes," noted Chief Executive Officer, Wayne Campbell. "PediCare is designed to remove the fear factor by providing a non-threatening, comfortable environment for the youngster, while the parent is reassured by knowing that a pediatric specialist is administering care. We're pleased to offer this valuable specialized medical service to the community."

Palms West Hospital is located at the crossroads of the western communities on State Road 7, serving Wellington, Royal Palm Beach, Loxahatchee, The Acreage, Greenacres, Suburban West Palm Beach, Belle Glade and surrounding communities. The ever-expanding Palms West campus includes a four-story hospital offering laboratory, maternity, imaging, endoscopy, medical and emergency services in addition to state-of-the-art operating suites for inpatient and outpatient surgical procedures. 99,000 square feet of medical office suites, housing forty physician practices; and an MRI (Magnetic Resonance Imaging) Center.

For further information about Palms West Hospital, call 798-3300. For physician referral, call 798-6221.

Spruce it up... this was the goal set and net by the volunteers from Palm Beach Atlantic College.

Staff and volunteers work together

Volunteers from Palm Beach Atlantic College donated their time to work along side staff members to help "spruce-up" the grounds at the C.L. Brumback Health Center in Belle Glade last week.

The volunteers, all from the coast, prepared the grounds for planting, painted the health Center's sign, parking lot bumper guards and assisted in medical records.

Denny Abbott, center administrator, was hauling and shoveling dirt along with the students. Wilene Brown, George Oliver and Marylou Powers used shovels, rakes and paint brushes to assist with the project. Community based organizations like Glades Correctional Institution, donated wheelbarrows and shovels and Subway Sandwiches donated Saturday lunch for the workers.

One of the goals of the center is to form partnerships with area agencies, businesses and social organizations. So far, partnerships have been formed with PBAC's Workshop program, New Hope Foundation and West Technical Education Center.

Mr. Abbott said he feels the center is an integral part of the community and as such, has a responsibility to meet the needs of the area. However, with limited funding, these needs are often left unmet. This is where the Volunteer Community Services Auxiliary Board helps - not necessarily with money, but with people - people interested in giving back to the community.

Mrs. Powers, who is the volunteer/community services administrator, said "individuals and businesses what to help. They just don't feel they have anything to offer. It is my responsibility to find that certain something and integrate it into the scheme of things."

"Senior groups, honor society's, church organizations, homebound individuals, businesses, mothers with young children, everyone has something to give and usually wants to help," she says.

For information on how to help, call Mrs. Powers at 996-1608.

Country Music singers Diamond Rio headline Fire On the Swamp III, Nov. 18

This year, the Seminole Indians are calling it a "Countryplaza." It's not quite an old Indian word, but a good term to describe this year's Fire On the Swamp festival, scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 18, at the Big Cypress Seminole Indian Reservation.

The Tribe's Rodeo and Entertainment complex, located an hour west of Broward County off Alligator Alley/I-75 will feature two stages of continuous country music and enough fun and adventure to keep adults ($10) and children ($5) entertained all day.

Headliners for the third annual Fire On the Swamp will be Country Music Association chart-busters Diamond Rio and Perfect Stranger, Tex-Mex sensations Emilio and Los Deperadoes, famed outlaw Johnny Paycheck, legendary fiddle master Vassar Clements and Florida's "Native Son," Seminole Chief Jim Billie. The world's top Irish fiddlers, James Kelly, and Texas fiddle sensation Erik Hokkanen have also been signed for the electric bill.

Musicians will begin at noon and continue, continuously, on two stages until 8 p.m. After the show, the famous Los Deperadoes band from Mexico will host a dance in the spacious Big Cypress Barn.

"We've got everything from Irish music to top ten country music, bluesgrass to Take This Job and Shove It, even the best Tex Mex music now going in two countries," says Seminole songwriter Paul Buster, whose Cow-bone band will also perform.

The Big Cypress Swamp National Fiddle Championship, featuring top fiddlers from around the world — trying for thousands of dollars in prize money — will also take place in the barn. Fiddle Clements, who rose from boyhood obscurity in nearby Kissimmee to worldwide fame, will present an intimate workshop, as will grand Florida fiddle master George Custer, Hokkanen and Kelly.

Visitors to Fire On the Swamp will be able to take horseback, airboat and swamp buggy wilderness tours. Budweiser beer, lots of food, games for the kids, and gator wrestling demonstrations will balance the musical fare.

Camping will be available on site. Also overnight chickens can be reserved by calling 1-800-949-6101. Nearest hotels are the Grand Palm (1-800-327-9246) and the Clewiston Inn (1-800-749-4466).

Big Cypress is located about an hour inland from Ft. Lauderdale. From the south, take I-75 exit 14 (Snake Road) north about 15 miles. From the north, find State Road 80 between Clewiston and LaBelle and go south from 80 on County Road 833 about 40 miles. Look for the signs.

Tickets can be purchased on site and through any Ticketmaster outlet. Call 1-800-535-2228 — Fire On the Swamp "hot" line — for information.

Ideals are like stars; you will not succeed in touching them with your hands. But like the seafaring man on the desert of waters, you choose them as your guides, and following them you will reach your destiny.

Swedish Weight Loss Surprises Researchers

Sweden—After many scientific studies, Banta was developed by Vita Source with the assistance of the U.S. Government. After extensive testing with amazing results, Banta is now available in this country. The unique ingredients of Banta are proven to burn fat, decrease appetite, and increase lean muscle tissue.

Gary F. of Santa Barbara, California stated, "I lost 11 pounds within three weeks. I feel much better and definitely have more energy." Thomas S., a Pharmacist from San Diego wrote, "I started Banta weighing 215 pounds and lost 20 pounds in 2 months. Incredibly 1 lost inches in all the right places."

In an interview with the Vice-President of Vita Source—"Letters from consumers telling us about their wonderful results have been so positive and overwhelming, we guarantee Banta to work. The only difficulty we have is keeping our stores in stock." Banta is available at most K-Mart Pharmacies including: Clewiston, 955 Sugarland Hwy. 983-1744

LEGAL NOTICES

Glades County District has in the past adopted and levied non-ad valorem assessments and some or all of said assessments may be levied for subsequent years. However, in 1996 the District may adopt and levy non-ad valorem assessments for the District's fiscal year 1996-1997, some or all of which may continue for more than one year, with said assessments being upon some or all of the lands located within the District boundaries. The non-ad valorem assessments which have been previously adopted, are continuing or will be adopted for the District's fiscal year 1996-1997, have been or will be levied for the purpose of payment by the District of bond indebtedness, maintenance and other lawful obligations of the District.

The aforementioned non-ad valorem assessments have been or will be adopted and levied for one or more of the following reasons:

1. They are required to be levied for the first time, or they are existing and have been previously placed on the roll and collected.
2. They were or are being increased beyond the maximum rate authorized by law at the time of their initial imposition.
3. They were or are related to a change in the boundaries of the Glades County District.
4. They were or are related to a change in the purpose of an existing assessment or in the use of the revenue from such assessment.

Interested parties may appear at the Public Hearing to be heard regarding the use of the uniform method of collecting such non-ad valorem assessments.

If any person desires to appeal any decision made with respect to any matter considered at this Public Hearing such person will send a record of protest and for such purpose such person may need to ensure that a verbatim record of the proceedings is made at their own expense and which record includes the testimony and evidence on which the appeal is based.

Pahokee Blue Devils massacre Pope John Paul 56-9

By Robbie Everett

Lefann Williams rushed for 267 yards in 20 carries and five touchdowns to lead the Pahokee Blue Devils to a 56-9 victory over Pope John Paul. The Blue Devils has its final district game against Cardinal Newman on Nov. 3 before sewing up the district championship. The Blue Devils are 3-0 against district rivals, scoring 176-21 points.

This week the Devil's host the undefeated 5A Boca Raton Bobcats for homecoming. "We're ready for this week's game. I'm looking forward to some action," said junior wide receiver James Burroughs. Burroughs has not played for four weeks due to an injury.

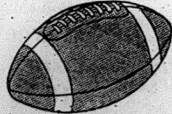

Senior wide receiver Coby Jones had a first quarter interception. Jones also caught a 12 yard pass from Anquan Boldin, taking it in 65 yards for the score. Senior return specialist Leniwood Johnson ran a 91 yard touchdown on a kickoff.

Defensive linebacker Glenton Edwards intercepted a Pope John Paul pass and ran it in 35 yards for the touchdown. Another defensive linebacker Anthony Williams accounted for a second quarter interception.

Glades Day Gators hold on, defeat Lions 9-7

By Eddie Campbell

Last Saturday the Glades Day Gators (No. 1 in the 2A state poll) traveled to Ft. Lauderdale to play the Westminster Academy Lions.

With a win the Gators would clinch the district title and a spot in the state playoffs. It was one of those games that left your fingertips blistered because you had already bitten off your fingernails.

The Gators held off the Lions for a 9-7 victory.

"It was an exciting game," said Head Coach amandy Perez. "We're very happy to have won the district championship. By the same token, we have some things we need to work on and we're going to try to get better as we approach the playoffs," he added.

All of the Gators scoring occurred in the first quarter. A 70 yard punt by Gator punter Wren Sloan pinned the Lions on their own six yard line. The Gator defense capitalized on the Lions' field position when senior defensive lineman Michael Hollon recorded a safety to put the Gators up 2-0. The Gator defense then recovered a Lion's fumble and capitalized on it when tailback Lee Sweet scored on a 20 yard touchdown run. The first quarter ended with the score 9-0.

The Lions, however, were not ready to 'give up just yet. A Gator fumbled punt led to a Lion touchdown which put the Lions right back in the game. Halftime interrupted the action with the score 9-7.

The second half was one of the more exciting halves that can be played without either team scoring. Both defenses took over the game. The game's final score wasn't determined until, with 24 seconds left in the game, Sloan intercepted a Lion's pass which sealed the game for the Gators.

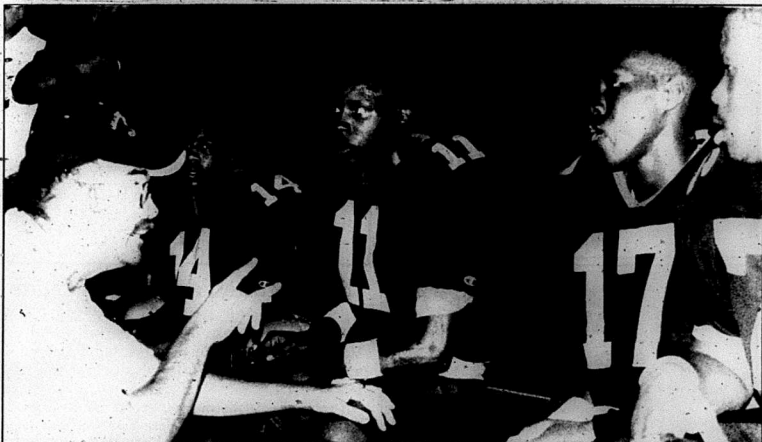

Lee Sweet carried 27 times for 92 yards and scored the only Gator touchdown. On defense the Gators held the Lions to 55 yards rushing. Sloan had 12 tackles and two interceptions while defensive lineman Patrick Altman had 13 tackles which included three sacks.

Hollon had 10 tackles on the day for the Gators.

Assistant Coach Craig Dobson said after the game, "After a win like that, you don't care about stats."

The Gators next play the Labelle Cowboys at home on Oct. 27.

Friday night football frenzy!

Now look, if we're gonna win this game you gotta...Glades Central High School Assistant Coach Pat Mackin lectures Number 14, Dominic Denson, Number 11, Larry Grant, Number 17, Brad Banks, and Number 7, Ontavious Pittman, just before they head back out on the field to beat the Clewiston Tigers.

Glades Central Raiders remain undefeated, 10-7 victory over Clewiston Tigers

Last year, the Clewiston Tigers won over Glades Central in a 24-3 victory which was reversed by declaration of forfeit for use of an ineligible player. This year, Glades Central Raiders earned their respect with a 10-7 victory over the Clewiston Tigers.

Glades Central's Andre Bryant gained 94 yards on 20 carries and scored the game's only touchdown after catching a second-quarter swing pass.

Raiders are 7-0, No. 5 in the state and 2-0 in district. Glades Central allowed Clewiston to cross midfield only two times.

Raiders defense limited Clewiston to 39 yards total offense during the game and constantly pressured Clewiston's quarterback Anthony Midget.

The Raiders' touchdown happened on their third possession when junior running back Andre Bryant scored on a 4-yard swing pass, from Brad Banks. Louis kicked the PAT for a 7-0 lead.

Raider's defensive back Lazarus Jackson had an interception from Clewiston's quarterback, Midget, near

Gerald Louis kicked a 23-yard field goal the 1:44 remaining in the third quarter to give the Raiders a 10-7 lead for good.

If Glades Central can do the same thing in their next game at Suncoast, Nov. 3, the Raiders will clinch the District 14-4A title on the field.

Mike Burkett and Earl Wingate are neck-and-neck again

Well, it's no surprise, but Mike Burkett with Lake Hardware and Earl Wingate with Bernie Little are again tied for the lead, each with a total of 67 correct picks.

If you've been following our sports section (and we KNOW you have), you'll note how well our local teams are doing. Glades Central's Raiders played a tough game against the Clewiston Tigers. The rivalry between these two schools always makes for an exciting evening of football.

The Glades Day Gators are now the District Champions, but they face a tough game this next week against the LaBelle Cowboys.

We dropped in this week on Rodney Daniel at Leo's Pizza. He was busy making those great Sicilian pizzas, but took time out to tell us that he has been doing the picking for Leo's for the past three weeks while Robert Grande enjoys a much needed vacation. Rodney said he's a big football fan, but he made a lot of mistakes in last week's picks. He's now tied for next to last place with David Rimes of Lake Welding, who also had a bad week.

But poor ole Robert Archer with First Community Bank is still rock bottom with a 57-23 score. He needs help.

Somebody out there give this guy some hints!

Fishing tournament planned for family of six year old cancer victim

Jeremy Andrew Ellis, six year old cancer victim.

The Lehigh Acres Bass Club first heard about young Jeremy Ellis in late August, 1995. He was in a Tampa hospital undergoing a marrow transplant. We began to organize an effort to help this young man. Unfortunately he passed away a few days later.

We asked the family for a brief history of Jeremy. Please find enclosed a hand written note from his mother.

Because of the medical financial burden incurred by the Ellis family, the Lehigh Acres, Cape Coral and other area bass clubs have joined forces to sponsor a Bass Fishing Tournament to benefit this grieving family.

The tournament has been tentatively scheduled for January 14, 1996 at Alvin B. Ward public ramp in Moore Haven, on beautiful Lake Okeechobee. All proceeds go directly to the Ellis family. Any questions concerning the tournament, please call Dennis Sprayberry at 941-728-2091.

We are looking for any kind of donations we can get. Small items that we can sell tickets for a prize drawing, large items we can auction off, and of course monies.

If you have any items to donate, please call the number listed above and we will pick them up and give you a receipt.

This tournament is not about bass fishing. This tournament is about people helping people. This tournament is a labor of love for a family that needs help. This tournament is a vehicle to raise desperately needed funds for this unfortunate family.

If you are not into fishing, but would like to help, your very much appreciated donation may be made directly to the Ellis Family at 915 Canton Avenue, Lehigh Acres, Florida 33936.

We are hoping your publication can give us a short story on this effort. A little advance publicity would be a wonderful help to us and we thank you so very much.

To whom it may concern:

Jeremy was born Jeremy Andrew Ellis, Sept. 21, 1988 in Lee Memorial Hospital to Debbie Hicks Ellis and Keith Ellis. Jeremy was a cracker and so is his father. Jeremy attended New Life Assembly of God starting at the age of 2 1/2. He always loved the music and the singing. A true Pentecostal!

When he reached school age, he attended Sunshine Elementary. He was able to ride the bus and enjoy school until the end of Nov. 1994. After that, he became ill and after weeks of antibiotics, Jeremy was diagnosed on Dec. 24, 1994 at 1:45 p.m. with Ki-1 Large Cell Anaplastic Lymphoma, a rare cancer very seldom found in children. He was always known for his love of tractors which he acquired at a very early age. This was actually how he learned his primary colors. Because of this, he had every tractor known to man. It was also through his tractors that he waged his battle with cancer. He fought a really good fight proving that nothing continues to run like my deer.

His Mom,
Debbie

Fishing with B.A.S.S. Pro. Walt Reynolds

tor, said they raised over $5,000 for the March of Dimes, with 157 teams fishing.

The team of Swanson and Kornmier won First place with eight fish weighing 25 pounds 10 ounces. They also tied for Big Bass of eight pounds three ounces with Silver and Calisano. Quick and Simms' team finished second with 20 pounds 14 ounces, followed by Dolson and Lamb in third weighing in 20 pound, one ounce.

The cold front conditions pushed the fish deeper in heavy cover and the Lord knows there is plenty of that with the high water.

You have to push back to the reeds and bullrushes where the trash has piled up, then flip a crawdad or worm, with a heavy weight, to get the bait through the grass to open water underneath. This kind of fishing takes a lot of concentration as the bites are slow and often very light. Heavy line, I like 25 pound Berkley XT, and a seven foot or seven 1/2 foot heavy rod are almost a necessity.

For those of you who don't like this style or won't slow down enough, try a topwater, spoon, or a J&J Buzzbait in the Mokey Box or Moonshine Bay areas.

Look for clean water and don't be afraid to experiment. Remember it is a new lake and a new game in town.

I will travel to Lake Eufala, Alabama, this week to pre fish for the Red Man Pro-Am Classic to be held early November. Have a great week and pray for sunshine.

To all a good bite,
Walt Reynolds

Editor's note: We received a copy of this letter, sent to our Glades Day School sports writer Eddie Campbell. We agree with Mr. Altman, former long-time mayor for the City of Belle Glade, that this young man is doing a great job covering sports for the Gators and we're glad the community appreciates his writing for The Sun...

Dear Eddie:

I wanted to send you this formal compliment on the outstanding level of sports coverage you are providing our community. I don't think the Glades area has ever had the quality, depth and accuracy of coverage of sporting events that you are now providing through your position with the Belle Glade Sun. Your knowledge of sports, and your ability to translate that knowledge to your readers is a special gift.

I have been reading sports for over thirty-five years and I wanted you to know that, in my opinion, you have a great future ahead of you in this business. Please know how much the whole town appreciates the services that you and your paper are providing.

Sincerely,

Thomas L. Altman

Maria Warren has been coaching for three years.

I want to thank all these wonderful people for their time and energy: Support staff Lydia Caso, which helps coach the young ladies, Judy Decosta will be running the concession stand, Mr. Dave Campbell helps chaperone the away games, Athletic Director Pete Karas who does whatever he can to help and Coach Shane for opening lockers, concession stand, etc.

I would also really like to thank Glades Day School's coaches for their help and support in running our yearly jamboree," concluded Mrs. Warren.

"The J.V. team is very young this year. We only have three returning players from last year. If the young ladies work hard and stay with the sport, great things will come from them," stated Head Coach Maria Warren.

Varsity Football

A word from the coach...

Varsity football coach Joe Marx has been coaching for a total of 21 years. Pahokee Middle/High School has benefited from his coaching expertise for the past three years.

Mr. Marx previously coached in Pennsylvania at Indiana University of Pennsylvania and at Marion Center High School in Pennsylvania. Although he's yet to have team to go all the way to the state playoffs, Coach Marx hopes this will be the year.

Mr. Marx's coaching techniques haven't changed over the years but one significant change that has occurred is the size of the players. "The athletes used to be much bigger than they are now."

Mr. Marx said that one of his players, Jim Haslett, has gone on to play professional football. Haslett, who attended Indiana University of Pennsylvania college (IUP), later moved on to the Buffalo Bills.

Some of the tough teams to be faced by the Pahokee Blue-Devils this year are Olympic Heights and Boca Raton which are out-of-district games, and Cardinal Newman which is a district game.

Coach Marx feels that several of his players have the potential to move on to college football. To name a few, out of his senior players, he chose Lafann Williams, Jeremy Banks, Darrell Dean, Fred Smith, Glenton Edwards and Linewood Johnson.

Coach Marx said his strategy for a winning team is to have good defense. "In order to move up at state, we have to improve on defense. Weightlifting is encouraged also. Players who lift weights seem to respond from injury quicker than those who do not lift weights."

When asking Coach Marx if his discipline techniques have changed over the years he stated, "Yes and no. There is less physical contact allowed now than before. We do a lot of the things verbally now that we used to be able to do physically."

Last year the Glades Day Varsity Volleyball team finished 2nd in District 12 (2A), losing to the eventual state 2A champions.

"We have two returning starters. What we lack in height we make up in skill and determination," said Coach Rita Schoenfeld.

Ms. Schoenfeld has been coaching for 17 years. Her support staff consists of Assistant Coach Barbara Scruggs and Stat person Jennifer Pate.

Denelda King returns as setter and Fida Musallet returns as middle blocker. "With the leadership provided by King, we expect this squad to advance in the post-season playoffs. The girls work well together and encourage each other off and on the court. We have a lot of depth this year that we haven't had in the past. If we can keep everyone healthy we expect to have a successful season," said Ms. Schoenfeld.

Last year Glades Day Junior High Gators volleyball team finished 12-0.

"We have 16 first-year players. I have nine returning from last year and have seen big improvement in those players," said Coach Karen Hansford.

Ms. Hansford has been coaching for four years. Her support staff consists of Assistant Coach Courtney Courson, Manager Hela Barhoush and Stat person Donna Moss.

"As a junior high team of 7th and 8th graders, our main job is to teach the girls the basic skills. For this reason, we try not to make any cuts of girls trying out, especially their first time. Many of them make big improvements through the season and go on to play Junior Varsity and Varsity Volleyball," said Coach Hansford.

A word from the coach...

Team effort confuses the opposition

The boys want it badly. The coach would love to have it - a state football championship title this year.

Coach Mandy Perez wants to see his Glades Day football team go all the way to state this year, and clinch the title.

Glades Day hasn't won a state championship since 1986, but few schools can brag about having won it as many times as the Gators. They brought home the state trophy three times, in 1980, '82 and '86. They have been to state nine times since 1980. The Gators went to the state playoffs two years ago and suffered a defeat to Graceville.

The boys haven't lost a game yet this year, and they have been training hard, says Coach Perez. They must still win the district games against King's Academy, West Minister, and Moore Haven to have a shot at the brass ring.

Coach Perez says this year's team has a lot going for it. "This is a team effort more than any other team I've coached," he said.

This has got to be confusing to the opposition, who expects to focus on a few key players. Instead, they find the diversity these boys show hard to figure out.

"It does. It confuses the other team. They can't key in on any one person," says the coach. "And, this team relies on great defense," he adds.

Coach Perez has been coaching football for 21 years at Glades Day. This is his fourth year as head football coach at the school. He says some things are different from his early days of coaching. "You can't be as hard on the kids now as back then," he noted. "They also need more explanation as to the 'whys'," he says.

Admitting that the years have mellowed him, somewhat, he says, "I'm more laid back than I used to be. We used to think it makes players tougher if they could do without water for a long time."

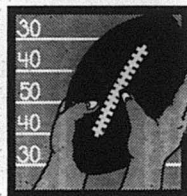

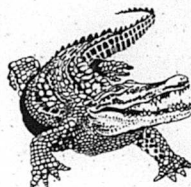

Hard work and concentrating on weight training is what will make this a winning team, according to Coach Perez, who adds that his strategy to having a winning team is to "trust the players."

Several Glades Day School football players have gone on to play college sports, including Mike Schleeter, who played at Carson-Newman; Jeff Parson, University of Utah; Philip Echols, University of Utah; Jason Tucker, Marysville College; Graham Chancey, Tusculum College; Tommy Swager, Marysville College; Richard Sheilly, Tuft College; Toby Vanscoy, Cal. Poly Tech. Over a dozen others have gone on to play for smaller colleges, he said.

Glades Day's Varsity Football team is having a winning season so far under the leadership of Coach Mandy Perez and all the assistant coaches who help get the team in tip top shape.

Head Coach Milton Watson

A word from the coach...

Glades Central Varsity Football Coach Milton Watson has a four-step plan to having a winning team: a lot of preparation, good conditioning, out hit the opponent and, the bottom line, out score the other team.

Coach Watson has been coaching football for 12 years, starting his career at Leon High School in Tallahassee. He then coached at Wakulla High School in Crawfordville, Florida where his team was the 2A state champs in 1980. He later went to Buchanan Junior High in Tampa and then to Boca High in Boca Raton and he has also coached at Spanish River High School.

Over the years, Coach Watson says the attitudes of young players have changed, but he believes he has several players this year who have the potential to go on to college or pro sports. Last year, 16 players from Glades Central signed to play college or pro football.

He said he tries to instill discipline into any team he coaches and stresses the team concept. "It also helps if you surround yourself with a great staff, such as I have," he added.

Coach Watson said one of the toughest games to see for his team, who haven't lost a game yet this year, is Palm Beach Gardens.

"The road to success is not an easy one," said the coach, "but it is one of hard work and determination."
